

Larry Kindbom

Larry Kindbom, the mastermind behind the renaissance of Washington University's football program, continues to carry the Bears to new heights. Since assuming the head coaching reins in 1989, Kindbom has overhauled the Bears' gridiron program and has guided Washington University to the upper echelon of Division III football.

Kindbom was recently presented the 2009 Grant Teaff "Breaking the Silence" Award at the 2010 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Convention in Orlando, Fla., because of his hard work and dedication to the prevention of youth suicide.
