

Allen Shamblin

Allen Shamblin was born in Tennessee and grew up in Huffman, Texas, about 30 miles outside of Houston. After graduating with a Marketing degree from Sam Houston State University, Allen moved to Austin, Texas, where he worked as a real-estate appraiser by day and honed his songwriting skills by night. In August of 1987, Allen moved to Nashville, with 14 completed songs. His "story songs" with vivid detail and honest, earthy lyrics quickly caught the ear of the Nashville music establishment.

Allen has over 100 songs recorded by Artists. Allen was inducted into the Nashville Songwriters Hall Of Fame with Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson, Thom Schyler and John Bettis. Allen's first big hit was Randy Travis's version of He Walked On Water. This past year he co-wrote with Tom Douglas, The House That Built Me was recorded by Miranda Lambert and garnered Allen several Awards. 2010 CMA Song Of The Year, 2011 ACM Song of the Year and two Grammy nominations.

Mission Statement:

To create awareness for Obsessive Compulsive Disorder and other mental health issues while providing essential funding for youth athletic programs and otherwise inaccessible individual mental health screening and treatment.

Vision Statement:

Through youth athletics, public awareness and financial assistance, we can promote positive mental health for students in our area, and annually benefit 1,000 or more students.

Goal Statements:

On an annual basis, provide scholarship awards to deserving student athletes in Carbon, Lehigh, and Northampton Counties.

Provide significant funding for many youth athletic programs specifically in the Palmerton, Lehigh and Northern Lehigh School Districts plus surrounding areas.

Provide financial assistance to students who would not otherwise have access to mental health screening and treatment.

Support mental health awareness and educate parents to recognize the potential warning signs and symptoms.
